ROBBERY.

On the night of the 6th of December, 1816, the Exchange Office of the subscriber, Bridge street, Georgetown, from appearances by a false key, was robbed of the following property, in Specie, consisting of dollars, change, American and English gold, about 200 dollars; bank notes, mostly three dollar notes of the bank of Washington, and some small tickets, together about 30 dollars, a one pound note of the bank of England, and one hundred and sixty four lottery tickets as per numbers below. The lottery tickets can be of no use to the persons taking them, and an attempt to pass them would only lead to a detection, it is therefore hoped that the person or persons who took them, will return them to the subscriber through the Post Office at Georgetown. A liberal Reward will be paid by the subscriber for any information that may lead to the discovery of the persons or a recovery of the property. All keepers of lottery offices in the United States will please to keep a list of the numbers of the following tickets, as it may lead to a discovery of the theft.

IN SENATE—Wednesday, Dec. 11.

Mr. Varum presented to the Senate the instructions of the state of Massachusetts to their Senators, to use their exertions to procure a repeal of the compensation law.

The motion of Mr. Barbour to amend the constitution, was read a second time, and committed to Messrs. Barbour, Roberts, Daggett, Mason of N. H. and Brown.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 11.

Mr. Middleton, from So. Ca. and Mr. Root, from New York, appeared this day.

The speaker laid before the house a letter from George Graham, the acting Secretary of War, in compliance with a resolution moved some days ago by Mr. Reynolds, transmitting a statement of the proceedings of the commissioners for laying out and opening a road from Reynoldsburg, on the Tennessee river through the Chickasaw nation.

The committee of Elections made a report, in part recognizing the validity of the election of the following members returned to this house since the last year viz: Messrs James Carr, Benjamin Adams, Archibald S. Clarke, Daniel Avery, George Peter, Peter Little, Samuel Dickens, Charles Hooks, Thomas Fletcher, William Henry Harrison, William Hendricks, Nathaniel Pope.

Mr. Yancey of N. C. from a select committee, reported a bill of Nathaniel Williams; which was twice read and committed and was subsequently ordered to be engrossed for a third reading.

Mr. Forsyth of Geo. from the committee appointed to lay before the president the resolution requesting the president to lay before the house a statement of the proceedings of the commissioner of claims reported that the committee had performed that duty.

CORPS OF INVALIDS.

Mr. Johnson of Ky. from the committee on military affairs, reported a bill for the relief of the infirm, disabled and superannuated officers and soldiers of the army of the United States of the revolutionary war, and the late war, and of militia disabled in the late war. [This bill contemplates the establishment of a Corps of Invalids.] The bill was twice read and committed.

Richmond, Dec. 12.

Virginia Legislature.

Yesterday, the House of Delegates received a variety of reports and petitions—few of them of any general importance.

The committee reported the petition from this city, for an inspector of butter, lard, etc. reasonable—A petition was presented from the town of Port Royal, Caroline county, for the establishment of a bank—which was referred to the committee on that subject.

Mr. Scott reported, that the joint committee had waited on Col. Preston, the Governor Elect, to inform him of his election—as appeared from the following correspondence:

Sir—We have been appointed, on the part of the Senate and House of Delegates, to announce to you your election to the office of Chief Magistrate of this Commonwealth.

In discharging this duty, it affords us a high gratification to communicate this spontaneous offering of a country's gratitude to a citizen, who has given higher value to his civic virtues, by nobly distinguishing himself in defence of the soil and the rights of his country.

This proof of the confidence of your native State will we confidently hope, yield you an additional solace for your many sacrifices for the public good.

In your administration of the government, we anticipate many advantages from your experience and constant devotion to the best and dearest interests of our common country.

Accept assurance of our high personal respect and esteem.

Gentlemen—Through you, the organ of the representatives of the people, it is announced to me, that I have been elected to the Chief Magistracy of the Commonwealth. In obedience to that will, I advance with dutiful alacrity to that distinguished post, but not without entertaining a fearful conviction that it will not be maintained with an ability equal to the indulgent opinion which assigned it to me, or with talents commensurate with its importance. I feel that the spontaneous offering of a country's gratitude, which has thus elevated me, must often be my resort and shield from unintentional error.

The confidence of my country, and the approbation of good men, are the only rewards that I ever hoped or desired to attain for my humble efforts.—To merit this, I have honestly endeavored to perform my duty. I feel that which you now offer, as an "additional solace" so far surpasses my poor claims upon my country, that I must accept it in anticipation, as a sure guarantee to my patriotism, not only while I have the honor to preside in the administration, but throughout my whole life.

I tender diligence, integrity and fidelity in lieu of your favorable anticipations on the score of experience; and I do not hesitate to declare that you shall not be disappointed in the continuance of my constant devotion to the best and dearest interests of our common country.

To you, gentlemen, my acknowledgments are particularly due, for the polite manner in which you have made the communication.

JAMES P. PRES. ON.

Short Chapter of Hints and Advancements on the subject of Hard Times.

BY ONE OF THE PEOPLE.

Missing the mark by over shooting it. THE celebrated Dean Swift, I quote from memory only, not having by me the record—the celebrated Dean Swift had been so highly pleased with the conversation and deportment of a farmer's wife at Dublin, that he invited himself to dine at her house, and sent her notice to the effect, "The trial was rather too long for her prudence. Elated with the idea of entertaining a guest whose company was courted by the first nobility of the realm, she dressed herself out as fine as her fingers could make her, and, in the attire, received the Dean with stately ceremony. He, in his turn made his profound obeisance, and then instantly enquired for the farmer's wife. "I am she; pray sir, don't you know me?" "You! no Madam, I won't be tricked; the farmer's wife that I come to see is a plain woman, but you look like a Duchess."

After excellent sense made her understand the hint, and her excellent husband made her take it in good part. She withdrew changed her dress, and returned in a plain robe. "Ah, tis she," joyfully exclaimed the Dean; "this is the very woman the farmer's wife that I came to see, and I expect to be quite happy in your company."

No reflection is meant by introducing this anecdote here. Assuredly, no insinuation is intended, that females of the middle rank, whether belonging to the families of farmers, mechanics, traders, or of whatever reputable occupation else, are less worthy of esteem than these plaid daughters of wealth and fortune. So far otherwise, I do verily believe that in the living world there are not to be found more estimable body of females, than in families of but middling circumstances. As wives, as mothers, as daughters, as sisters, no female character have done more virtuously. Alike removed from the seductive influence of luxurious wealth, and pinching poverty, not a few of them are patterns of domestic excellence.

And what is it that has made so many of them so estimable, and of price above rubies?—It is their sober virtuous habits—their modesty—their piety—their industry—their prudent economy—their faithful discharge of domestic duties—their assiduous and wisely-directed efforts, "to make well ordered home man's best delight." This is their honorable distinction, the gem that sheds lustre over their persons.

But when infected with the modern heresy, they are led to believe that a close attention to household duties is degrading to character, that their frugal saving, industrious grand mothers were poor spirited creatures, and that costly attire and furniture, sitting often abroad, and receiving company at home in a style of high fashion, are what will give them honorable distinction; when under the influence of this late error, they scornfully neglect domestic occupations, run into the expensive fashions of wealth and high life, and by these means impoverish parents, hu-bands and their own offspring.—It is then that the crown is fallen from their heads.—It is then that they lose all claim to that esteem, which a different course of conduct would have fairly entitled them to.

Blind infatuation! Their object is honorable distinction; but instead of obtaining which they provoke the laughter and mockery of all about them.

ALEXANDRIA

MONDAY, DECEMBER 16.

At a meeting of the subscribers to the Alexandria Dancing Assemblies, held at the Alexandria Hotel, agreeable to public notice, on Friday evening the 15th inst. the following gentlemen were unanimously elected managers for the season:

Gen. Robert Young, Col. George Deane, W. H. Fitzhugh, N. Herbert, Alex. Moore, W. D. Simms, T. F. Mason, W. S. Stuart, A. Fitzhugh, Robt. Manderley, John Washington, J. T. Ramsay.

The following is a postscript to a letter received this morning from Halifax, by a gentleman in this city, dated, Halifax, N. S. Coffee Room, Sunday morning, Nov. 24, 1819.

Arrived, brig Grey-borough, Ferris, 15 days from Newfoundland. Three days before she sailed a vessel arrived therein fifteen days from Greenock, which brought intelligence that the crops throughout England were abundant.

The Judicial Court at the Cape of Good Hope, in August last, granted a divorce for incompatibility of temper. This incompatibility of temper, is probably where the parties are both alike. As the Irishman said of his wife—"We quarrel because we are BOTH of a mind she wants to be master, and so do I."

The Spanish chief, Toledo, so highly extolled in the democratic papers for his incorruptible attachment to the revolutionary cause in Spanish America is now accused in the same papers as being an instrument of the King! This ought to teach the Editors not to be too warm in asserting the purity of men merely because they appear to entertain the same sentiments as themselves.

Amnapolis, Dec. 12.

The Senate of this state forwarded a quorum on Thursday last, and appointed Mr. Richard Harwood clerk, Mr. John N. Watkins Assistant clerk, Mr. Thomas J. Brice committee clerk, Mr. G. I. Grainger, messenger, and Mr. Henry Chandler, door keeper.

On Monday his Excellency Charles Hildely, of Hampton, was re-elected Governor of this state for the ensuing year, and on the following day, James Shaw, Richard Prishy, Henry H. Chapman, William B. Ward, and William Potter, Esquires, were elected to the council.

From the N. Y. Columbian, Ultra-Federalism in Kentucky.

The Lexington Reporter of the 18th ult. denounces an act of usurpation and tyranny of the Kentucky Senate with just indignation. Col. Philip White, for publishing a handbill, animadverting on the senate, has been ordered into custody and arraigned at the bar for breach of privilege! The Reporter asks, "what privilege?" are the privileged from public opinion? Had a federal assembly thus behaved like a British House of Lords, how angrily we should reproach them!

The official minutes, and comments of the Reporter shall be given hereafter. We consider the proceeding disgraceful to Kentucky, and to our party, worthy of a Spanish inquisition, but unbecoming the assembly of a free state. Before this upstart usurpation that of Napoleon seems little; it almost matches that of the Congress of Vienna.

From Fort Osage, Missouri Territory. Extract of a letter from Lieutenant Gay of the 8th United States Infantry to the editor, dated Fort Osage, Oct. 31, 1819.

"Some time ago, I learned that a party of hunters from Boone's Settlement, below us, were hunting on Le Mine River, on the south-west side of the Missouri, where they discovered a grave, which they opened, and found in it a body which they supposed to have been a British officer's from the dress. I was curious to learn the particulars, and wrote to John Monroe, Esq. of Boone's settlement, who I understood was the principal of the hunting party, from whom I received the enclosed letter you may use as you think proper.

It is to be observed that a band broke off from the Sacs and Fox nations of Indians on the Mississippi some time since and have settled on the Missouri, near the mouth of the Grand River; and frequently stray over to the south-west side of the Missouri, as far as the river Le Mine. The band of the Sacs and Foxes have been neutral during the late war and could not be induced to take up arms against the United States, as the rest of their nation did. If the body found was that of a British officer, which it was generally supposed to have been, it is probable that he had been sent as an agent to this band, to persuade them to take up arms against the U. S. where he has met his end. The buttons being off his coat is not extraordinary, as the Indians in this country are fond of buttons to ornament their ears, necks, &c. It is common among the Indians, when they bury their dead or those who die among them, (if they pay any respect to them) to bury them in their full dress. Had the enemy during the late war got this band to join them in this quarter, they would have been able to have destroyed this whole frontier.

Singular Instance of Female heroism.

About two weeks since the wife of Mr. John Cobb, of Providence in this county observed a wolf following some sheep directly towards the house in which they lived; and as her husband was absent from home, she immediately took down his rifle and approached the wolf who stopped as she advanced. She levelled the piece at him & snapped it 3 times in succession without effect. Being convinced that the rifle would not go off she resolved upon another mode of attack & immediately approached the wolf who began to advance & with the breach of the gun she struck him on the head when the breach broke off; not discouraged however, at this accident, she kept the wolf at bay with the barrel, and called to her son, a boy of about ten years, to bring an axe; who did so; but as he approached, the wolf made towards him, when she threw the axe at the wolf & retreated.

The wolf immediately turned, and again attacked the woman; who had in the mean time secured a club, with which she beat the wolf, and killed him, without receiving any injury.

The Female Onesimus Society.

THIS Society had its origin in a high state of excitement on the all important subject of religion apparent among many of our youth. It led them to meet often together. That their impressions might not wear off, they were anxious to associate on some common principles. What appeared most likely to be lasting was the union of piety and morality, which mutually excite and strengthen each other, and cannot be separated.

The name, under which the society associates, is of great origin, signifying to profit, expressive of their desire to receive advantage, individually, from such an association, and to be advantageous to others.

All the members are divided into committees to solicit donations, and to visit the poor. They meet once a week to make garments for those who are destitute.

Whilst at work, readers are appointed to select passages from the Old and New Testament, with Orton's & Doddridge's Commentaries.

The members of this society having been generally assisted in exertions to render comfortable the situation of the poor and needy, during the inclemency of winter, beg leave in this public manner, to tender in behalf of those for whom they are laboring, their grateful acknowledgments to those who have so liberally bestowed their charity to this important object. Verily they shall not be their reward; for he that hateth pity on the poor, lengtheneth to the Lord.

Any person, who may feel disposed to favor the object of the institution, either by donations or subscriptions, may at any time have an opportunity of doing it, by calling upon Mrs. Mary Harper, or Mrs. McDonald. And the public may rest assured, that their assistance will be always gratefully received and faithfully applied.

JAMES KENNEDY & SON,

ROCKFELLERS, KING STREET,
Have just received from LEE'S PA-TENT MEDICINE Store, No. 46
Maiden Lane, N. York.
A FRESH SUPPLY

Of the following genuine Medicines,
For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers, is recommended

Hahn's Anti-Bilious Pills.

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings, in several parts of the West Indies, and the Southern & Middle States, particularly in N. York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Petersburg, Richmond, Norfolk, Edenton, Wilmington, Charleston, and Savannah. The testimony of a number of persons at each of the above places can be adduced, who have reason to believe, that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives, when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy, founded on mere assertion.

It is not, indeed, presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience, for believing that a dose of these Pills, taken once in every two weeks, during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventative; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases, their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate, and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation, and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile & prevent its morbid secretions—to restore & amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which is so often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance—they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every man.

HAMILTON'S WORM DES- TROYING LOZENGES.

Which have cured an immense number of persons of both sexes, of every age, and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from worms, and from obstructions of oilfulness in their stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of, as operating with violence; on the contrary, a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is also mild in its operation.
cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will, without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels, of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms, and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

DESCRIPTION OF WORMS.

And the symptoms by which they are known:

Worms which infest the human body, are chiefly of four kinds, viz.—The Terres, or large round worm; the Ascaris, des, or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina, or short, flat, white worm; and lastly, the Teenia, or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long, and is full of dots. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food, and sometimes voracious; purging, with slimy & fætid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; slow fever, with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face swelled and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms, should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success, in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of chint—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys the hands of the infant part of our citizens it is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number, who in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, asthmatic, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white-swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, &c.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.
So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellant minerals (the basis of other lotions), and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c. The Persian Lotion operates mildly, without impeding the natural insensible perspiration, which is essential to health, yet its effects are speedy and permanent, rendering the skin delicately soft and smooth and improving the complexion.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

This excellent preparation comforts and strengthens the gums, preserves the enamel from decay, and cleanses and whitens the teeth, by absorbing all the acrimonious slime and foulness, which suffered to accumulate, never fails to injure and finally ruin them.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative.

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of the various complaints resulting from dissipated pleasures, juvenile indiscretions, residence in climates unfavourable to the constitution, the immoderate use of tea, frequent intoxication or any other destructive intemperance the unskilful or excessive use of mercury, the diseases peculiar to females at a certain period of life, bad lyings in, &c.

HAMILTON'S ELIXIR.

Sovereign remedy for Colds, obstinate Coughs, Asthma, sore throats, and approaching Consumptions, and most disorders of the breast and lungs.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent, and intermittent fevers.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
